

Jack Taylor Memorial Car Show

September 24, 2017 | Green Lake, WI

General Information and Rules - Held at Harvest Fest, the Jack Taylor Memorial Car Show will be held in Downtown Green Lake on September 24, 2017, rain or shine. An event to truly look forward to, registration begins the morning of the car show at 7:00 am and will continue until noon. While every attempt will be made to fulfill car show participant's parking requests, show officials reserve the right to determine each entrant's parking area.

OPEN TO ALL REGISTERED SHOW CARS, A CASH DRAWING WILL BE HELD AT 3:00 PM AT THE FESTIVAL SQUARE. YOU MUST BE PRESENT TO WIN.

- All show cars must register either at the County Fairgrounds located on South Street, or in front of the Chamber office located on Mill Street. The registration booth outside of the Chamber office will close once the Downtown Car Show spots are reserved.
- Please do not park in the show area before 7:00 a.m.
- All cars must pass through a check-in gate to pay and receive a registration packet before parking in the show area. Failure to do so will result in having to move your car from its spot and re-entering through the check in gate.
- Register immediately after positioning your car and preparing it. All registration forms must be signed and have the car year to be eligible for the drawing. Registration packets will be distributed at show entrances ONLY, and once the form is filled please drop at the cash drawing box located where you entered.
- All cars must be in show condition as determined by show officials at the check-in areas to participate in the show and the drawing.
- Vehicles must be a 1996 model or older.
